Subject: Concern Regarding Stereotypes in Advertising

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to express my concerns regarding certain advertisements that have recently come to my attention, which perpetuate harmful stereotypes.

Specifically, I observed the advertisement for [Product/Service Name] aired on [Date/Platform], which depicted [brief description of the stereotype presented]. This representation not only misrepresents the [group affected] but may also reinforce negative perceptions among viewers.

As a [your position or relation to the subject], I believe it is crucial to promote inclusivity and diversity in advertising. Advertising has a powerful influence on societal views and stereotypes, and it is our responsibility to ensure that the messages being sent are positive and representative of all members of society.

I urge you to consider revising this advertisement and promoting a more accurate and respectful portrayal of [group affected]. Thank you for your attention to this matter, and I look forward to seeing inclusive representations in your future campaigns.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
