Dear [Credit Bureau Name],

I am writing to formally demand correction of erroneous information on my credit report, specifically pertaining to [describe specific account, e.g., "Account Number: 123456789"]. After reviewing my credit report dated [date of credit report], I have identified fraudulent data that requires immediate attention.

The following inaccuracies were found:

- [Describe the first inaccurate item]
- [Describe the second inaccurate item]
- [Add additional items as necessary]

This information is not only incorrect but is also damaging my creditworthiness. Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, I request that you investigate these discrepancies and provide me with a written confirmation of the results of your investigation within [number of days, typically 30].

To assist with your investigation, I have enclosed copies of supporting documents, including [list any documents, e.g., "a police report, my identification, and any relevant correspondence"].

Please confirm that the necessary corrections will be made and that the revised credit report will be sent to me after the corrections have been completed.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Should you need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me at [your phone number] or [your email address].

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
