Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally express my frustration and disappointment regarding the ongoing unresolved service issues I have experienced with [Company/Service Name]. Despite multiple attempts to address these concerns through your customer service channels, the situation remains unsatisfactory.

On [specific dates], I reported the following issues: [briefly list issues]. Unfortunately, I have yet to receive a satisfactory resolution or even a follow-up response, which has prompted me to escalate this matter.

As a loyal customer, I expect timely and effective communication and resolution from your company. I kindly request urgent attention to this matter and a detailed response regarding the steps that will be taken to rectify these issues.

Thank you for your immediate consideration of this matter. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
