Subject: Personal Injury Claim Negotiation - Claim #[Claim Number]

Dear [Claims Adjuster Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally begin negotiations regarding my personal injury claim, related to the incident on [Date of Incident]. The claim number associated with this case is [Claim Number].

As you are aware, this incident has caused me significant physical and emotional distress, including [briefly describe injuries and impact]. I have incurred medical expenses amounting to [Total Medical Expenses], in addition to [any other expenses like lost wages, medication, therapy, etc.].

After careful consideration of the damages and the impact this injury has had on my life, I believe that a fair settlement amount would be [Proposed Settlement Amount]. I trust that you understand the importance of reaching an agreement that reflects the true extent of my losses.

I am open to discussing this matter further and hope to reach a timely resolution. Please feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss the claim.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
