Introduction

As we prepare for our upcoming marriage, I believe it is essential for us to discuss and negotiate a prenuptial agreement. This document will help us clarify our individual expectations and protect our interests.

Negotiation Points

- Separate Property: How will we define and manage separate property acquired before and during the marriage?
- Joint Property: What will be considered joint property, and how will we handle its division if needed?
- Debt Responsibility: How will we manage existing and future debts incurred by either party?
- Support Obligations: Will there be any provisions for spousal support in case of divorce?
- Inheritance Rights: How will we address inheritance and estate planning for our respective families?
- Dispute Resolution: What process will we agree upon for resolving any disputes related to the prenup?

Conclusion

I believe having this discussion will strengthen our relationship and ensure that both of us feel secure as we embark on this journey together. I look forward to hearing your thoughts and scheduling a time to discuss this further.

Sincerely,
