Dear [Neighbor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to address the ongoing disagreement regarding the property line separating our two properties located at [Your Address] and [Neighbor's Address]. It has come to my attention that there are differing opinions regarding the actual boundaries.

To resolve this matter amicably, I propose the following steps:

1. Hire a licensed surveyor to assess the property lines based on the recorded deeds and established markers.
2. Schedule a meeting to discuss the findings and agree upon the next steps based on the survey results.
3. Collaboratively draw up a written agreement that will outline the resolved boundaries, ensuring both parties are in concurrence.

I believe that taking these steps will help us come to a mutual understanding and prevent any further disputes. Please let me know if you are open to this proposal or if you have any alternative suggestions.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
