Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose a compromise regarding the ongoing civil lawsuit, [Case Name/Number]. After careful consideration of the circumstances, I believe that reaching an amicable settlement would be in the best interest of both parties.

The key terms I propose for the settlement are as follows:

1. [First term of the proposal]
2. [Second term of the proposal]
3. [Third term of the proposal]

I believe that this proposal will facilitate a resolution without the need for further legal proceedings and allow both parties to move forward positively. Please review the proposed terms and let me know your thoughts.

Thank you for considering this compromise. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
