Subject: Appeal for Civil Forfeiture - [Case Number]

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to formally appeal the civil forfeiture of my property, as outlined in the case number [case number]. I believe that the forfeiture violates my constitutional rights, specifically the [mention relevant constitutional rights, e.g., Fourth Amendment - protection against unreasonable searches and seizures].

On [date of forfeiture], my property was seized under circumstances that I contend did not meet the constitutional standards for such actions. [Briefly describe the circumstances of the seizure and the constitutional violations you are alleging].

According to [cite relevant laws or precedents], the actions taken against my property lack sufficient legal justification, and I request a thorough review of the case in light of these constitutional principles.

Enclosed with this letter are copies of [list any relevant documents, such as previous correspondence, evidence supporting your claim, etc.]. I kindly ask that this appeal be reviewed and that the forfeiture be rescinded.

Thank you for your attention to this serious matter. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
