Re: Petition for Emergency Child Custody Hearing

To Whom It May Concern,

I, [Your Name], am writing to formally request an emergency hearing regarding the custody of my child, [Child's Name], born on [Child's Date of Birth]. I believe that immediate action is necessary due to [briefly explain the circumstances that warrant an emergency hearing, e.g., potential harm, neglect, or other urgent situations].

Currently, [provide details about the child's current custody situation, including where they live and with whom]. I am seriously concerned that [elaborate on the reasons for your concerns, including any specific incidents or evidence that support your petition].

Therefore, I request that the court schedule an emergency hearing to review this situation and determine the necessary temporary custody arrangements to ensure the welfare of my child. I believe that it is in the best interest of [Child's Name] to [state your proposed custody arrangement or immediate needs].

Attached are [list any supporting documents you are including, such as police reports, medical records, or witness statements] that may help support my petition.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. I look forward to your timely response.

Sincerely,
