Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to request a reference for my academic research related to [brief description of your research]. I am currently in the process of [explain your current academic position or program] and believe that your insights would significantly strengthen my work.

My research primarily focuses on [briefly explain the research topic and its relevance]. I have come across your work on [mention specific works or publications by the recipient] and have found it incredibly influential in shaping my perspective.

If you are willing to provide a reference, I would be more than happy to share further information about my research goals and any details you might need to assess my request.

Thank you for considering my inquiry. I look forward to your positive response.

Best regards,
