Dear [Client's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. As a real estate professional, my success is largely attributed to the support and satisfaction of my clients. I am reaching out to kindly request your help in providing a reference for my real estate license.

Your testimonial would not only assist me in enhancing my professional remarks but also help potential clients in their decision-making process. If you could share your experience working with me, I would greatly appreciate it.

Thank you for considering my request. If you have any questions or need further information, please feel free to contact me.

Warm regards,
