Dear [Professor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to request your support in my application for the doctoral program in Interdisciplinary Studies at [University Name]. I have thoroughly enjoyed the courses I took with you during my time at [Previous Institution], and I believe that your insights into my abilities would greatly enhance my application.

The program I am applying to emphasizes the integration of diverse fields, and I feel that my background in [Your Previous Fields/Disciplines] aligns well with this approach. Your perspective on my work ethic and analytical skills during [specific project or course] would provide the admissions committee with valuable context.

If you are willing to provide a reference, I would be more than happy to share my resume, statement of purpose, and any additional information you may require. The deadline for submission is [Deadline Date], and the submission link will be sent directly to you upon your agreement.

Thank you very much for considering my request. I truly appreciate your time and support.

Warm regards,
[Your Name]
