Dear [Recipient's Name],

I am writing to express my interest in the internship position for environmental anthropology research at [Institution/Organization Name], as advertised on [where you found the listing]. As a dedicated student pursuing a degree in anthropology at [Your University], I am eager to apply my academic knowledge and research skills to contribute to your team.

My background in anthropology, combined with my passion for environmental issues, has equipped me with a unique perspective on the interplay between human cultures and their environments. I have completed coursework in environmental anthropology, cultural ecology, and qualitative research methods, which I believe will be beneficial for the objectives of your research projects.

Additionally, I have gained practical experience through [mention any relevant projects, volunteer work, or prior internships], where I honed my skills in data collection and analysis. I am particularly drawn to [specific research project or area of interest within environmental anthropology at the institution], and I am excited about the prospect of contributing to this important work.

Please find my resume attached for your review. I am looking forward to the opportunity to discuss how my background, skills, and enthusiasms align with the goals of your research team. Thank you for considering my application.

Sincerely,
Your Name
