Dear Hiring Manager,

I am writing to express my interest in the Phonetics Research Assistant internship position at [Company/Organization Name] as advertised on [Where You Found the Internship Posting]. I am currently pursuing a degree in Linguistics at [Your University], where I have developed a strong foundation in phonetics and research methodologies.

Through my coursework and research experience, I have gained practical skills in acoustic analysis and experimental design. I am particularly excited about the opportunity to contribute to ongoing research projects at [Company/Organization Name], as I am deeply passionate about the intricacies of speech sounds and their implications in language studies.

I believe my academic background, combined with my enthusiasm for research, makes me a suitable candidate for this position. I am eager to collaborate with your team and learn from experienced researchers in the field. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss how I can contribute to your innovative research.

Sincerely,
Your Name
