

Dear [Manager's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally resign from my position at [Company Name], effective [Last Working Day]. This was not an easy decision for me, but after much reflection, I feel it is necessary for my personal and professional growth.

Throughout my time at [Company Name], I have appreciated the opportunities for development and teamwork. However, I have come to realize that my personal values and beliefs are not fully aligned with the company culture. This conflict has made it increasingly challenging for me to perform at my best and stay true to myself.

I believe strongly in [insert personal values, e.g., integrity, collaboration, etc.], and I find that these principles are not always reflected in the company's practices. It is important for me to work in an environment that resonates with my own values, and I feel that this is not currently the case.

Thank you for the support and opportunities for growth I have received during my time here. I wish the company continued success and hope to stay in touch in the future.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
