

Dear Dad,

I hope this letter finds you in great spirits. I've been reflecting on our relationship, and I feel compelled to share my feelings with you.

First and foremost, I want to express how much I love you. You have always been my guiding light, and your support means the world to me. I cherish the lessons you've taught me and the moments we've shared.

However, I also want to sincerely apologize for the times I may have hurt you or let you down. I regret the misunderstandings and the words I may have said in anger. It was never my intention to cause you pain, and I deeply regret my actions.

Please know that I am committed to making things right between us. I want to work on improving our relationship and ensuring that you feel appreciated and loved. You deserve that and so much more.

Thank you for being patient with me and for your unconditional love. I am truly grateful for you.

With all my love,
