Dear [Vendor Contact Person],

I hope this message finds you well. We appreciate the partnership we have developed with your company over the years. However, we believe there is room for improvement in the performance standards that impact our mutual objectives.

We are seeking to understand the measures you are currently implementing to ensure optimal performance in areas such as delivery timelines, product quality, and customer service. Additionally, we would like to inquire about any challenges you may be facing that could hinder these standards.

Could you please provide us with detailed information regarding your current performance metrics and any steps you are considering to enhance your service quality? Your input is crucial for us to align our expectations and work collaboratively towards better outcomes.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. We look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
