Dear [Vendor's Name],

We hope this message finds you well. We want to take this opportunity to express our appreciation for the excellent services that your company has consistently provided. As we continue to strengthen our partnership, we believe that implementing a vendor loyalty program could benefit both parties significantly.

Our proposal includes the following elements for negotiation:

- Increased discounts based on purchase volume
- Exclusive offers for long-term partnerships
- Priority customer support for loyalty program members
- Additional promotional opportunities for featured services

We are excited about the potential of enhancing our collaboration through this loyalty program and would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this further. Please let us know your availability for a meeting next week.

Thank you for considering our proposal. We look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
