Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this message finds you well. My name is [Your Name], and I am [Your Title] at [Your Organization]. We have been following your organization's newsletter efforts with great interest and admire the quality of your content.

We believe that there is an opportunity for both our organizations to benefit from a collaboration focused on newsletter benchmarking. By sharing insights, metrics, and best practices, we can enhance our newsletters' effectiveness and reach, ultimately serving our audiences better.

We propose a joint initiative to compare key performance indicators, audience engagement strategies, and content effectiveness. This collaboration could take the form of regular meetings, shared reports, and even workshops, fostering a community of learning between our teams.

We would love to discuss this proposal further and explore how we can work together on this initiative. Please let us know your availability for a meeting at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for considering this collaboration opportunity. We look forward to your response.

Best regards,
