

Subject: We Want to Feature You in Our Next Newsletter!

Dear [Subscriber's Name],

We hope this message finds you well! At [Your Company Name], we believe that our community is our greatest asset. That's why we're excited to announce our new initiative to include user-generated content in our monthly newsletters!

We invite you to share your stories, photos, and experiences with our products/services. Your contributions not only enrich our content but also inspire others in our community.

How to Contribute:

1. Send us a brief description of your experience with our products.
2. Attach any photos or videos you'd like to share.
3. Include your name and social media handle for a shoutout!

All selected entries will be featured in our upcoming newsletter, and contributors will receive a special discount on their next purchase as a thank you!

We can't wait to hear from you!

Best regards,
