Dear [Lender's Name],

I am writing to request a business credit line for [Your Company Name]. We are seeking a credit line of [Desired Amount] to help us manage our operational expenses and support our future growth initiatives.

With [Number of Years in Business] years of experience in [Industry], our company has demonstrated consistent growth and a solid financial performance. [Briefly describe your business operations, target market, and any relevant financial metrics].

We believe this credit line would provide us with the flexibility to manage our cash flow more effectively and capitalize on new opportunities as they arise.

Thank you for considering our request. I look forward to discussing this matter further and am happy to provide any additional information you may require.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
