Dear [Lender's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally request the removal of my cosigner, [Cosigner's Name], from my personal loan account number [Loan Account Number]. I understand that the original agreement included a cosigner, but I believe that I have sufficiently demonstrated my ability to manage the loan independently.

Since the start of this loan, I have made all payments on time and have maintained a positive credit history. My current financial situation has improved substantially, and I am confident in my ability to handle the responsibilities of this loan on my own.

Enclosed, please find supporting documentation, including recent pay stubs and my credit report, to further substantiate my request. I kindly ask you to review this information and consider my request for cosigner removal.

Thank you for your understanding and attention to this matter. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
