Dear [Landlord/Property Manager's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally apply for the rental property located at [Insert Property Address]. I am highly interested in making this place my home.

I would like to mention that my current financial stability is supported by social aid, which assists me in managing my living expenses. This support is crucial for ensuring that my rent will be paid consistently and on time.

I have attached the necessary documentation regarding my social aid, as well as other relevant information about my rental history and references. I assure you that I am committed to maintaining the property and adhering to all lease agreements.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss this further.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
