Dear [Landlord's Name],

I am writing to formally apply for the rental property located at [Insert Property Address]. I am currently seeking a new residence and believe your property would be an excellent fit for my needs.

Due to recent circumstances, I am currently receiving unemployment benefits. This support allows me to maintain my financial obligations, including rent, while I seek new employment opportunities. I have attached documentation regarding my unemployment benefits for your review.

I have a solid rental history and can provide references upon request. I am committed to being a responsible tenant and ensuring that I maintain the property in good condition.

Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the opportunity to discuss this further and hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,
