Dear [Landlord's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request permission for the installation of cable services at my residence located at [Your Address].

As a tenant, I find that having access to cable services would greatly enhance my living experience here. I plan to use the service for [briefly explain the purpose, e.g., work, entertainment], which I believe is beneficial and reasonable.

I assure you that I will coordinate with the cable company to ensure that the installation process is smooth and does not cause any damage to the property. I will also be responsible for any associated costs.

Please let me know at your earliest convenience if you approve of this request or if there are any specific procedures you would like me to follow.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
