Dear [Recipient Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to propose a collaborative art exhibition at our community library that aims to engage local artists and celebrate the creative talent within our community.

The proposed exhibition, titled "Voices of the Community", would feature artworks created by local artists, showcasing various mediums such as painting, photography, and sculpture. We envision this event as an opportunity to foster community pride, encourage self-expression, and enhance the cultural landscape of our library.

We would like to invite [Library Name] to partner with us in this endeavor. Our goal is to involve community members through art workshops leading up to the exhibition, providing them with a platform to display their work and share their stories.

We propose the exhibition take place from [Insert Start Date] to [Insert End Date], culminating in an opening reception on [Insert Reception Date]. We believe that your support and involvement would significantly elevate the exhibition's impact and outreach.

We are excited about the potential to collaborate and look forward to discussing this proposal further. Please let us know a convenient time for you to meet or speak in the coming weeks.
