To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to formally apply for a scholarship to attend the upcoming church retreat scheduled for [Insert Dates]. I believe that this retreat offers a unique opportunity for spiritual growth, fellowship, and renewal in my faith.

As a dedicated member of [Insert Church Name], I have actively participated in various church activities, including [List Activities]. However, due to [Briefly Explain Financial Situation], I am unable to cover the full cost of this retreat.

I kindly request consideration for a scholarship and would be grateful for any assistance that can be provided. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of participating in this transformative experience.

Sincerely,
