

Dear Church Family,

As we gather for this communion service, let us take a moment to reflect on the profound significance of this sacred act.

In 1 Corinthians 11:24-25, we are reminded of the words of Christ: "This is my body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of me. This cup is the new covenant in my blood; do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

Today, as we partake in the bread and the cup, let us remember the love, sacrifice, and grace that our Savior has poured out for us. This moment is not only a remembrance but a celebration of the unity we share as the body of Christ.

Let us approach the table with hearts of gratitude, open to the transformative power of His presence. May this communion deepen our faith and strengthen our bonds with one another.

In His love,
