Dear [Nanny's Name],

We are pleased to take this opportunity to recognize and appreciate your hard work and dedication as our nanny. Over the past [duration], you have consistently demonstrated outstanding performance in caring for our children and contributing to our family environment.

Your commitment to providing a safe, nurturing, and stimulating environment for our children has not gone unnoticed. Your ability to engage them with fun activities, your patience, and your attention to their individual needs have been invaluable to us.

Additionally, your excellent communication skills and professionalism have made a significant impact on our family dynamics. Our children have thrived under your care, and we are incredibly grateful for all you do.

As a token of our appreciation, we would like to offer you [insert any bonuses, pay raise, or benefits]. We believe this reflects the commitment and talent you bring to your role.

Thank you once again for your dedication and hard work. We look forward to continuing our relationship and witnessing the positive influence you will continue to have on our family.

Sincerely,
