

You're Invited!

Dear [Friend's Name],

I hope this message finds you well! I am excited to invite you to a friendly literary critique session at my place on [date] at [time]. It will be a great opportunity for us to share our thoughts on each other's work, offer constructive feedback, and enjoy some snacks while we're at it!

Please let me know if you can make it. I would love to hear your thoughts and share some laughter together.

Looking forward to your reply!

Best wishes,

[Your Name]
