Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally express my dissatisfaction with the quality of food I received during my recent visit to [Restaurant/Food Service Name] on [Date of the Visit].

During my visit, I ordered [specific dish or item], and unfortunately, it did not meet my expectations due to [specific reasons such as poor taste, undercooked, stale, etc.]. This experience has raised concerns about the standards of food quality that are being provided to customers.

As a loyal customer, I believe it is important to bring this matter to your attention in hopes that you will address these quality control issues. High-quality food is paramount in maintaining customer satisfaction, and I hope my experience is taken seriously.

I look forward to your prompt response regarding this matter. Thank you for your attention to this issue.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
