Dear [Principal's Name],

I am writing to express my concern regarding the ongoing issue of bullying that my child, [Child's Name], has been experiencing at [School's Name]. Despite previous discussions, it has come to my attention that these incidents continue to occur.

Specifically, [briefly describe specific incidents, dates, and any actions taken]. This has caused [Child's Name] significant distress, affecting their emotional well-being and academic performance.

As concerned parents, we believe it is crucial for the school to take swift action to address this matter and ensure a safe environment for our child and all students. We would appreciate your immediate attention to this issue and would like to schedule a meeting to discuss how we can collaboratively resolve this situation.

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
