Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the outcome of my recent audition for the [specific music program] at [institution name], which took place on [audition date]. I appreciate the opportunity to audition and the time and effort that the faculty dedicated to reviewing my performance.

While I respect the decision, I would like to express my thoughts regarding my audition and provide additional context that may not have been fully captured during the evaluation process. [Briefly explain your reasons for the appeal, such as unexpected circumstances, personal challenges, or specific aspects of your performance you believe warrant reconsideration.]

Music is a vital part of my life, and being a part of this program has been a long-standing goal of mine. I am committed to improving my skills and contributing positively to the program and the community. I kindly request a reconsideration of my audition outcome, as I believe I have much to offer as a dedicated student.

Thank you for taking the time to read my appeal. I appreciate your consideration and am hopeful for a favorable response. I am available for further discussion should you require any additional information.
