

Reference Letter for Academic Probation Support

Date: [Insert Date]

To Whom It May Concern,

I, [Your Name], am writing this letter in support of [Student's Name], who is currently facing academic probation at [Seminary Name]. As [his/her/their] professor/advisor, I have had the privilege of observing [his/her/their] commitment to theological studies and the challenges [he/she/they] has encountered.

[Student's Name] has demonstrated a passion for [specific area of theology or ministry], and although [his/her/their] recent academic performance has been affected by [brief explanation of circumstances], I firmly believe that [he/she/they] is capable of succeeding with the right support and guidance.

Throughout [his/her/their] time at [Seminary Name], [Student's Name] has shown resilience and a desire to grow personally and spiritually. [He/She/They] is dedicated to overcoming obstacles and has actively participated in [mention any relevant activities or programs].

I wholeheartedly recommend that [Student's Name] be given the opportunity to continue [his/her/their] studies and receive the necessary support during this probationary period. It is my belief that with help, [he/she/they] will thrive academically and spiritually.

Thank you for considering this request. Please feel free to contact me at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address] should you require further information.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
