Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal the decision regarding my admission to the [Architecture Program Name] at [School Name]. After careful consideration and reflection upon my application, I believe that there are important aspects of my background and achievements that may not have been fully recognized during the admissions process.

[Briefly explain any new information, accomplishments, or personal circumstances that support your appeal. Be concise and to the point.]

Additionally, I have [mention any relevant projects, experiences, or skills] that I feel would contribute positively to the program and enhance the diversity of ideas among the student body.

I appreciate the time and effort the admissions committee invests in selecting candidates for your esteemed program. I kindly request a reassessment of my application in light of this new information, and I would be grateful for the opportunity to discuss my case further.

Thank you for considering my appeal. I look forward to your response and hope for a positive resolution.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
