

Subject: Request for Collaboration on Product Feedback Survey

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. We are reaching out to invite you to collaborate with us on an important initiative aimed at improving our [Product/Service Name]. We highly value your insights and would greatly appreciate your participation in our product feedback survey.

Your feedback will be instrumental in helping us understand how we can enhance our offerings and better serve our clients. The survey will take approximately [estimated time] to complete, and your responses will be kept confidential.

Please let us know if you would be willing to assist us by completing the survey. We believe that your expertise would provide invaluable perspectives that can help shape our future developments.

Thank you for considering this request. We look forward to the possibility of collaborating with you.

Best regards,

[Your Name]

[Your Position]

[Your Company]

[Your Contact Information]