Re: Objection to Court-Ordered Restitution Terms in Case No. [Case Number]

Dear Clerk of the Court,

I am writing to formally object to the restitution terms ordered by the court in the above-referenced case. I believe the amount of restitution set forth in the order is unrealistic given my current financial situation.

Specifically, the court has ordered me to pay [insert amount], which I am unable to fulfill due to [briefly explain your financial circumstances]. I am fully committed to adhering to my legal obligations and wish to find a more manageable resolution.

I respectfully request a reconsideration of the restitution terms and would appreciate an opportunity to discuss this matter further. Thank you for your attention to this important issue.

Sincerely,
