

Parental Consent Letter

Date: _____

To Whom It May Concern,

We, the undersigned, being the parents of [Child's Name], wish to express our consent for our child to enter into marriage with [Partner's Name], who practices a different faith.

We understand the importance of mutual respect and understanding in an interfaith marriage and fully support their decision to unite in love and partnership. We believe that their love transcends religious differences and will foster a strong, loving foundation for their future together.

We encourage our child and their partner to embrace each other's beliefs and cultures as they embark on this journey of marriage.

Should you require any further information or clarification, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,

[Parent 1's Name]
