Dear [Scholarship Committee's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to formally appeal for reconsideration of my scholarship application for the [Scholarship Name]. I am currently a [Your Year, e.g., sophomore] majoring in [Your Major] at [Institution Name].

Upon receiving the notification regarding my scholarship status, I was disappointed but also encouraged to reflect on my academic and financial circumstances. [Briefly explain any relevant circumstances that impacted your previous application, such as personal hardships, changes in financial situation, or academic challenges. Be specific and sincere.]

Since the submission of my original application, I have taken steps to improve my situation, including [mention any relevant achievements, improvements in grades, or contributions to the community]. I am committed to my education and can assure you of my dedication to achieving academic excellence.

Thank you for considering my appeal. I appreciate your time and understanding. I am hopeful for the opportunity to continue my education with the support of the [Scholarship Name].

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
