

Subject: Request for Cash Discount on Early Payment

Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. We appreciate our ongoing partnership and the quality of service/products your team provides.

As we continue to streamline our operations, we are exploring opportunities to enhance our cash flow management. To that end, we would like to discuss the possibility of receiving a cash discount for early payment on our invoices.

We believe that implementing such a discount could mutually benefit both our organizations by improving our liquidity while providing you with more timely payments.

Specifically, we would like to propose a [X]% discount for payments made within [Y] days of receiving the invoice. We are confident that this adjustment could lead to a stronger financial partnership between our companies.

Please let us know a suitable time for us to discuss this proposal further. We are looking forward to your response and hope to reach a mutually beneficial agreement.

Thank you for considering our request.

Best regards,
