Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I am writing to suggest the translation rights for the classic literary work, [Title of the Work] by [Author's Name]. This timeless piece holds significant cultural and historical value, and I believe that it deserves to reach a broader audience through translation.

With its rich themes of [briefly describe main themes or subjects], [Title of the Work] has the potential to resonate with readers from various backgrounds. Translating this work can not only expand its readership but also introduce [Author's Name]'s unique voice and ideas to new markets.

I would be delighted to discuss this proposal further and explore potential collaboration opportunities for the translation process. Please feel free to reach out at [Your Phone Number] or [Your Email Address].

Thank you for considering this suggestion. I look forward to your response.

Warm regards,
[Your Name]
