Dear [Co-Editor's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to propose a collaboration on a publication that I believe aligns with both our research interests and expertise. The working title is "[Proposed Title]," and it aims to address [briefly describe the focus of the publication].

Given our previous work in [mention relevant work or background], I believe that our combined insights could greatly enhance the quality and impact of this publication. I would love the opportunity to discuss this potential collaboration further and explore how we can work together effectively.

Could we perhaps schedule a time to connect in the upcoming weeks? I look forward to your thoughts.

Thank you for considering this proposal.

Best regards,
