Dear [Publisher's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to propose a unique edition of my upcoming book titled "[Book Title]," which I believe would be a great fit for your publishing portfolio.

This edition will offer [brief description of unique features, e.g., illustrations, forewords, additional content], making it stand out in the current market. I am confident that it will attract a diverse audience and tap into [specific market or genre].

I have attached a detailed proposal, including the book outline, target audience, and marketing strategies. I would love the opportunity to discuss this project with you further and explore the potential for collaboration.

Thank you for considering my proposal. I look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
