Dear [Recipient's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am reaching out to inquire about your audiobook studio services as we are currently looking for a professional team to assist us in producing high-quality audiobooks.

We have several titles that require expert narration, sound engineering, and editing. Given your reputation in the industry, we believe your services would be a perfect fit for our project needs.

Could you please provide us with information on your studio capabilities, pricing structure, and availability? We are aiming to start production by [Insert Target Start Date] and would appreciate a response at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for considering our request. We look forward to the possibility of working together.

Sincerely,
