Dear [Client's Name],

Subject: Financial Consultation for Legal Proceedings

Thank you for reaching out regarding your financial situation as it relates to your upcoming legal proceedings. As your financial consultant, I aim to provide you with a comprehensive evaluation of your current financial position and assist you in preparing the necessary documentation for your case.

To begin, I recommend we schedule a meeting to discuss the following points:

- Your current financial status, including income, expenses, assets, and liabilities
- Specific financial documents needed for the legal process
- Potential financial impacts of the legal proceedings
- Strategies for financial management during and after the proceedings

Please provide your availability for the upcoming week so we can arrange a suitable time for this consultation. I look forward to assisting you in navigating this challenging situation.

Sincerely,
