Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to formally request legal representation for my refugee case currently pending review at your esteemed embassy. Due to the complexities surrounding my application and the potential implications on my safety and well-being, I believe that legal representation is essential to adequately present my case.

My case involves [briefly describe your situation, e.g., persecution, humanitarian crisis], and I am seeking asylum due to [reasons]. I have attached relevant documentation to assist in the review of my case.

I kindly request the assistance of a qualified legal representative who can advocate on my behalf and provide guidance through the legal process. Please let me know the procedures for obtaining legal representation through your office.

Thank you for your attention to my request. I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
