Subject: Appeal for Rejected Study Permit Application

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing to formally appeal the recent decision regarding my study permit application (Application Number: [Your Application Number]) which was rejected on [Date of Rejection]. I appreciate the time and effort taken to review my application; however, I believe there was a misunderstanding regarding my eligibility.

In the refusal letter, it was stated that [summarize reasons for rejection]. I would like to respectfully address these concerns and provide additional evidence to support my application.

1. [First point addressing the rejection reason with supporting details/evidence.]
2. [Second point addressing the rejection reason with supporting details/evidence.]
3. [Third point addressing the rejection reason with supporting details/evidence.]

Furthermore, I have attached [list any supporting documents] to substantiate my claims and reinforce the validity of my application.

Studying in Canada is vital for my academic and professional goals, and I am committed to complying with all regulations. I kindly request that you reconsider my application based on the new information provided.

Thank you for your time and consideration. I look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
