

Inquiry About Subpar Service Delivery

Dear [Service Provider's Name],

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to express my concerns regarding the service I received on [specific date] at [specific location or context]. Unfortunately, my experience did not meet the expectations that I have come to associate with your company.

Specifically, I encountered issues such as [briefly describe the issues, e.g., delays, poor communication, inadequate service]. I believe these shortcomings warrant an investigation to understand what went wrong and to ensure that future customers receive the standard of service that we expect.

I would appreciate any information you could provide regarding this matter and any steps you're taking to address these concerns. Thank you for your attention to this issue, and I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
