Dear [Utility Company Representative's Name],

Subject: Notification of Suspected Meter Tampering

I am writing to formally notify you of a suspected tampering issue with my utility meter located at [Service Address]. I have noticed irregularities in my usage readings, which suggest that the meter may have been manipulated.

Specifically, I have observed the following:

- [Brief description of the observed irregularity]
- [Any previous readings for comparison]
- [Any other relevant details]

I request that your team investigates this matter as soon as possible since it could lead to inaccurate billing and other complications. Please let me know if any further information is needed from my side.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this issue. I look forward to your swift response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
