Dear [Insert Recipient Name],

We are writing to propose an evaluation of the Debt Fairness Doctrine, focusing on its implications for both lenders and borrowers within our community. In light of recent economic shifts, it is crucial to assess how the current framework impacts equitable lending practices and debt recovery processes.

Our evaluation will include:

- An analysis of existing policies and their effectiveness.
- Stakeholder interviews and community feedback.
- Recommendations for policy adjustments based on our findings.

We believe that this evaluation is timely and vital to promote fairness in our debt management practices. We would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this proposal further at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for considering our proposal. We look forward to your response.

Sincerely,
